Regina Canada Day Vendor Agreement

VENDOR SELECTION

Vendors for the Regina Canada Day Celebration are selected based on their application submission. Submission of the application does not guarantee acceptance. Vendors will be contacted to confirm their participation in the celebration, or otherwise.

Application Deadline: June 15, 2018

FEES

Vendor fees for 2018 will be:

Food/Beverage Vendor Fee: $900 | Retailer Fee: $600 | Crafter Fee: $200 | Non Profit (sales) Fee: $200

These fees are based on a single lot/space.

Food Vendor Single size: 20'x25'

Craft and Retailer: 15'x15'

Non Profit: 15'x15'

- Additional space will be subject to additional fees.
- Payment must be received with the application form.
- In the event the Vendor fails to i) attend the Canada Day celebration event OR ii) cancel prior to June 1, regardless of cause the Vendor fee will NOT be returned.
- This event will occur rain or shine – there shall be no refund due to weather related causes.

BOOTH RESTRICTIONS AND SAFETY

- Vendor booths must be portable and equipped with all required appliances and safety devices.
- Regina Canada Day committee does not supply any additional equipment.
- Food vendors must provide a copy of the Regina Qu'Appelle food permit, attached to your application form.

VENDOR GUIDELINES

- All booths must be set up by 10:00 am and all vehicles MUST be removed from the site unless otherwise indicated.
- Failure to be set up by 10:00 am may result in refusal to enter the site.
- Food vendors are allowed one (1) vehicle only on their lot. This is not negotiable.
- There is absolutely not to be any sort of weapons, toy guns, or any type of war toys that promote violence for sale.
- All booths are to be dismantled and removed by 11:00 pm. All garbage is to be removed from your site. At the end of the night the site should look as it did when you arrived.
- Vendors are expected to keep their booth clean and assist with ensuring the best possible experience for participants.
- Booths providing food products are subject to inspection by Regina Qu'Appelle Health District. If a vendor is not in compliance with RQHD requirements you may be asked to leave.
- Vendors are responsible for all licensing and permits.
- Food vendors located on the grass must ensure their tires are on plywood.

GROUND MAINTENANCE

Vendors must

- i) Maintain the grounds in a high state of cleanliness including timely pick up and removal off site of any garbage and waste.
- ii) Ensure there is no damage to the grounds. Vendors may be responsible to reimburse Regina Canada Day Committee for the costs of any repairs or cleaning arising out of the Vendor's use of the site.

INSURANCE

Retail and Food Vendors must provide a proof of insurance with your application form. The proof of insurance must evidence the Vendor carries public liability and property damage insurance with respect to the Regina Canada Day Celebration. Limit of Liability must be at minimum $2,000,000 bodily injury and property damage and must name Regina Canada Day Committee as an additional insured.

Where the Vendor brings a licensed vehicle onsite from which their operations take place, the Vendor shall provide Regina Canada Day Committee with proof of insurance evidencing automobile liability insurance for a minimum of $2,000,000 Third Party Liability.
